PROLOGUE

(pre-recorded)

My name is Joseph, the Golem, but what does that tell you except that I am raw potential, waiting to be shaped by need?

What does that tell you except that I am mute unless others speak for me, unless I am the shofar for my creator's breath?

What does that reveal except that I came into being by magic, and was kept secret by those who conjure under threat of death?

Am I so different from you, shaped by the circumstances of your birth, subject to the whims of power, the burdens of history?

Am I so different, invisible but for an act of grace, doomed to wait for redemption beneath a shroud of prayers?

The musical score for the Prologue is presented in a standard format with six vocal staves. The top staff is for Baritone Solo, followed by Soprano, Alto, Tenor, and Bass. The bottom two staves are grouped under the label 'O.R.' (Other Roles). Each staff begins with a 4/4 time signature. The score consists of a single measure of music, which is a whole note with a fermata. This measure is repeated at the end of the staff, with a double bar line and a repeat sign. The notes are placed on the first line of each staff, indicating a high pitch for all voices.
